

European Negotiation Association (E.NE.A)

Mission Statement

Our Vision

ENEA aims to become the leading European hub for research, theory-building, practice, and innovation in negotiation and conflict resolution. Inspired by the mythological figure Aeneas, a symbol of resilience and strategic foresight, we seek to build a strong, cooperative, and forward-thinking negotiation community across Europe and beyond.

Our Mission

- Advance Negotiation Excellence

ENEA fosters high-level discussions, interdisciplinary research, and knowledge sharing to improve negotiation strategies in business, diplomacy, policymaking, etc.

- Bridge Academia and Practice

By connecting leading scholars, policymakers, and corporate leaders, we promote evidence-based negotiation approaches that connect theory and real-world applications.

- Support European and Global Cooperation

Through strategic partnerships, research collaborations, and high-impact events, we contribute to the development of negotiation as a tool for international cooperation and conflict resolution.

- Empower Future Leaders

ENEA invests in training and mentorship programs for young professionals and scholars to enhance their negotiation skills, their teaching and their leadership capacities.

- Foster Collaborative Research

We promote joint research projects among European scholars specializing in negotiation and conflict management by establishing interdisciplinary networks and launching initiatives that address contemporary challenges in the field.

- Host the European Negotiation Conference (ENC)

Our flagship event, the ENC, serves as a platform to showcase cutting-edge research, innovative negotiation practices, and foster networking among top professionals and academics.

Core Activities

- European Negotiation Conference (ENC) as the cornerstone event.
- Publications & Research Collaborations, including special issues within specialised scientific journals.
- Workshops & Training Programs in negotiation, mediation, and strategic conflict resolution.
- Student and Future Leader Initiatives, including summer schools, workshops, and negotiation competitions to build skills and foster leadership.
- Innovation-Focused Projects that enhance mutual understanding among conflict parties at all levels—including individuals, organizations, and nations.
- Strategic Partnerships with academic institutions, thinktanks, and corporations to promote negotiation best practices.
- Community Engagement through specialized forums, working groups, and digital platforms.
- Knowledge Dissemination, including interviews and podcasts featuring leading European scholars and practitioners in negotiation and conflict studies.

Our Values

- Integrity & Ethics - Promoting fair and responsible negotiation practices.
- Cooperation - Fostering a community of practice towards the common goals of the association, and encouraging interdisciplinary and cross-sector engagement.
- Innovation - Advancing negotiation methods through research and applied practice.
- Impact - Driving meaningful change in negotiation practices at the European and global levels.
- Human rights and gender responsiveness - Incorporating a Human Rights based approach and gender responsiveness in the association activities and approaches.

Join Us

ENEA is open to everyone: academics, practitioners, policymakers, organizations, universities, etc. as long as you are interested in negotiation and conflict resolution. Whoever you are (a researcher, a corporate leader, a diplomat, a student, etc.), we welcome your engagement in shaping the future of negotiation in Europe and beyond.

The Founding Members

Adrian BORBELY (Emlyon Business School Emlyon & PRONEGO-DBS, France)

Patricia ELGOIBAR (University of Barcelona)

Maria GABRIELSEN JUMBERT (PRIO, Oslo)

Francesco MARCHI (ALTERNEGO & Sciences Po, Paris)

Doudou SIDIBE (ESIEE PARIS/Université Gustave Eiffel, France)

Remi SMOLINSKY (HHL, Leipzig)

Joana VIEIRA DA SILVA (Former HoD UNFCCC/PA COP, Portugal)

Emmanuel VIVET (ESSEC IRENE & DGAC, France)